

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING
for
ACADEMIC EXCHANGE AND COLLABORATION between

UTAH VALLEY UNIVERSITY, USA
and
THE ANDALUSIAN SCHOOL OF PUBLIC HEALTH IN GRANADA, SPAIN

Following discussions and the exchange of information between our two institutions, Joan Carles March Cerda, Director of the Andalusian School of Public Health, in Granada, Andalusia, Spain and Matthew Holland, President of Utah Valley University, USA agree to enter into this memorandum of understanding for academic exchange and collaboration between the two institutions.

This agreement is intended to promote cultural exchange and development of education and cooperation between the Andalusian School of Public Health, in Granada, Spain and Utah Valley University, USA. Through consultation and mutual understanding, both sides reach this agreement.

The academic exchange between Utah Valley University, USA and the Andalusian School of Public Health, in Granada, Spain will focus on faculty and student exchange. The goals of collaboration on academic activities contained in this agreement include the following:

- To improve international understanding
- To increase individual educational opportunities
- To enrich the educational environment of both institutions
- To provide both societies with more and better information about the other country
- To enhance the development of joint educational projects

1. Term of Conditions

To implement the goals expressed above, the following is mutually understood and agreed:

This Memorandum of Understanding shall be identified as the “parent document” of any future programme agreement executed between the two Institutions. Future agreements concerning any programme or exchange shall provide details concerning the specific commitments made by each Institution and shall not become effective until laid down in writing and approved in writing by the duly authorised representatives of both Institutions. The final decision about the level of participation and the time frame for future projects rests with each Institution.

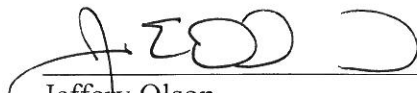

This agreement will serve as a general framework for academic cooperation between the two institutions and is intended to facilitate the development of specific independent programs of collaboration in the future. Details of any specific activities will be developed mutually. The Memorandum of Understanding may, from time to time, have addendums attached to it with regard to such activities.

2. Term of Agreement and Renewal

This Memorandum of Understanding is effective upon signing by both parties. It may be amended at any time by mutual consent and may remain in effect for a period of five years. It can be extended by mutual consent of both parties. In the event of major revision or cancellation of this agreement, the host institution will provide current participants with the opportunity to complete their approved program.

Termination shall be without penalty. If this Memorandum of Understanding is terminated, neither the Andalusian School of Public Health, in Granada, Spain nor Utah Valley University shall be liable to the other for any monetary or other losses that may result.

This Memorandum of Understanding is not intended to, and nothing contained in it shall, create any partnership, joint venture, or any other similar arrangement between the parties. No term of this Memorandum of Understanding is intended to, or shall, be for benefit of any third-party beneficiary, person, firm, corporation or other entity not a party hereto, and no-third party shall have any right or cause of action against either of the parties.

Jeffery Olson
Sr. Academic Vice President
Utah Valley University
USA

Joan Carles March Cerda
Director
Andalusian School of Public Health
SPAIN

3 February 2016 Date

9 de Febrero 2016 Date

Baldomero Lago
Senior Director
International & Multicultural Studies
Utah Valley University

3 February 2016 Date